

Terms of Use for Open Data Burlington, September 19, 2011

Please review these Terms of Use carefully. If you agree to these Terms of Use, then these Terms of Use are legally binding on you. If you do not agree to these Terms of Use, then you must immediately discontinue any use of this webpage and you will not be permitted to download or use any of the datasets. If you have any questions or comments about these Terms of Use, please feel free to contact us at its@burlington.ca.

Authority

You agree to these Terms of Use by downloading or using any of the datasets. You represent that you have full capacity and authority to accept these Terms of Use. If you are accepting on behalf of your employer or another person, then you represent that you have full authority to bind your employer or such other person to these Terms of Use.

Your Licence to the Datasets

The Corporation of the City of Burlington (the City) now grants you a worldwide, royalty-free, non-exclusive, revocable licence to use, reproduce, modify, and distribute the datasets in all current and future media and formats for any lawful purpose. You now acknowledge that this licence does not give you a copyright or other proprietary interest in the datasets. If you distribute or provide access to these datasets to any other person, whether in original or modified form, you agree to include a copy of, or this Uniform Resource Locator (URL) for, these Terms of Use and to ensure any such person agrees to, and is bound by, them but without introducing any further restrictions of any kind.

Giving City Credit

Although you are not required to credit the City for each use or reproduction of the datasets, you may do so and are encouraged to conspicuously announce that these datasets are publicly available from the City under these Terms of Use. Upon the request of the City, you agree to remove any credits should the City, in its sole discretion, decide that such credit is not in the public interest.

Future Changes to Datasets or Terms of Use

The City may, at any time and from time to time, add, delete or change the datasets or these Terms of Use. Notice of such changes may be posted on the home page for these datasets or this page. Any change is effective immediately upon posting, unless otherwise stated. The City will not notify you directly of any changes.

Your Responsibility to Comply with Laws

You assume sole responsibility for your use, reproduction, modification or distribution of the datasets and for complying with all applicable laws and industry standards.

No Warranty with Datasets

The City does not provide you with any warranties of any kind with respect to the datasets or your use, reproduction, modification or distribution of them. For example (but without limiting the total intended scope of the preceding sentence):

1. while reasonable efforts have been made in preparing these datasets for use by you, the City does not give any promises as to the completeness, currency, reliability, non-infringement or accuracy of the datasets or that access to the datasets will be continuous;

2. the City does not make any promises that the datasets are free and clear of any possible third party copyright, moral rights, other proprietary right or other claim or that the datasets are free and clear of software viruses or other harmful components; and
3. the City does not make any promises that you will be able to use or reproduce the datasets for your intended purpose.

Please note that the datasets have been modified from their original source and that all data visualizations on maps are approximate and include only records that can be mapped. You accept these datasets on an "as is, where is" basis and agree to use them solely at your own risk. You will be solely responsible for any damage to your computer system or loss of data that results from the downloading of the datasets.

If you learn of or discover any error, discrepancy or omission in the datasets, then you agree to promptly notify the City and provide reasonable details of such errors.

Exclusion of Liability

You agree that you will not and cannot sue the City for anything which the City does or does not do (even if intentional or negligent) in connection with the datasets and your use, reproduction, modification or distribution of the datasets or any inability to do so. Without limiting the general scope of the preceding sentence, the City and its elected officials, officers, employees, representatives, and agents are not liable on any legal theory or basis for any direct, incidental, indirect, special, punitive, exemplary or consequential damages or losses, including loss of revenue or anticipated profits, loss of goodwill, loss of business, loss of data, computer failure or malfunction or any other damages or losses arising from your access to, or use, reproduction, modification or distribution of, the datasets regardless of whether or not such liability or damages arise in contract, tort, negligence, equity, statutorily or otherwise, and even if the City has been advised of the possibility of such potential liability or damages and you absolutely and irrevocably release the City from any claim, demand, litigation or proceeding in connection with the foregoing damages that you may suffer or incur.

Liability for Not Complying with Terms of Use

If, as a result of your breach of these Terms of Use, the City gets sued or is required to pay someone money, you agree to protect the City and reimburse the City for everything which you cause the City to suffer or incur. You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the City and all of its elected officials, officers, employees, representatives, and agents from and against any and all liabilities, demand, litigation, injury, losses, damages and costs (including taxes), and all related legal costs and expenses, suffered or incurred in connection with any claim arising from: (i) any breach by you of these Terms of Use; (ii) any breach, infringement, misappropriation or misuse of any third party intellectual property right resulting from your use, reproduction, modification or distribution of the datasets; or (iii) any malicious, fraudulent (including fraudulent misrepresentation) or criminal conduct (whether by act or omission) by you. You agree to cooperate fully in the defence of any such claim. The City may assume, at its own expense, the exclusive defence and control of any matter otherwise subject to indemnification by you. You agree not to settle any matter without the prior written consent of the City.

Cancellation for Non-Compliance

The City may, in its sole discretion, cancel or suspend your access to the datasets and the licence granted to you in connection with the datasets without notice and for any reason, including anything which the City, in its sole discretion, believes is a breach of these Terms of Use or is otherwise unlawful or harmful to others. In the event of cancellation or suspension, you will no longer be authorized to use, reproduce, modify or distribute these datasets, and the City may use any means possible to enforce its decision. Such cancellation or suspension will not affect any person who has received the datasets from you and who is otherwise in compliance with these Terms of Use.

No Endorsement

You agree not to represent or imply that the City is participating in or has sponsored, approved or endorsed the manner or purpose of your use, reproduction, modification or distribution of the datasets.

No Association

You agree not to use any trade-mark, official mark, official emblem or logo of the City, or any of its other means of promotion or publicity, without the City's prior written consent. You agree not to represent or imply any type or kind of association or affiliation with the City.

No Waiver

You agree that, if the City does not exercise or enforce any legal right or remedy contained in these Terms of Use (or that the City has the benefit of under any applicable law), it will not be taken to be a waiver of the City's rights or remedies and that those rights or remedies will still be available to the City. Any waiver of any provision of these Terms of Use will be effective only if the City expressly states in writing that it is waiving a specified provision.

Governing Law and Entire Agreement

These Terms of Use are governed by Ontario law and the City and you now irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts in Ontario with respect to any and all matters arising under these Terms of Use or these datasets. These Terms of Use constitute the entire agreement between the City and you with respect to the subject matter of these Terms of Use and supersede any and all prior understandings and agreements, oral or written, relating to the subject matter.
